MASKETTE IN FINE FORM

JAMES R. KEENE'S FILLY ESTABLISHES NEW TRACK RECORD AT AQUEDUCT.

Wins Her First Out of the Season in Admirable Fashion-Dalmatian Shares Honors of the Race.

New York, May 5,—James R. Keene's Maskette, winner of the Futurity of 1908 and best furee-year out fully of last season, made her first appearance of the year at Aqueduct today in the six and a half furliongs handleap. She took up 122 pounds and won handliy from Dalmatian and Rocky O'Brien in the remarkably fast time of 1:18, which established a new track record for the distance. The race was a remarkable one for both the four-year-old filly and Dalmatian, which was also making his initial effort of the season. With 103 pounds up, he went stride for stride with the filly all the way and when it is considered that the first three-quarters were run in 1:11½, and that he then outgamed Rocky O'Brien, which had avoided the early pace, the race stamps him as one of the best three-year-olds of the season. Rocky O'Brien had the advantage of an earlier race and was taking up 107 pounds. On his showing today, it would seem that Dalmatian holds him safe. Maskette is in the Metropolitian and her performance will probably make her favorite for that race. The programmed feature was the Newtown Selling Stakes, which went to H. G. Bedwell's Madman, which took up 116 pounds and, giving weight to every starter, won easily from Hildreth's Jeanned 'Arc, the favorite. The tabulated history of the Newtown Stakes is man, which took to the Newtown Stakes is the tabulated history of the Newtown Stakes is Another promising three-year-old was shown during the day when J. E. Garmor, Berbythorpe took the measure of Follie Levy. He is a soft flat was bought for a big price from H. M. Ziegler at Saratoga last season. He ran three-quarters in 1:122 easily and the character of the race indicated that he will be one of the good ones in the younger division. He is well engaged.

After the first race, a five-eighths dash for two-year-olds, won by Winning Widow, Albert Simons claimed Edda from G. W. Berry for $1,300. The claim was made for J. W. Schorr, who started the first properties of the day when she led all the way to beat Dandelion, one of the best-backed choices of the Dandelion, one of the Dest-Hacker Claus afternoon.

Jockey Shilling was suspended for five days after the races on Wednesday for his ride on Euclid.

The recent legislation in Albany had its effect on the attendance and today's crowd was not up to the usual number. Considerable speculation is had as to the effect of the bills that have passed the Scenate. But the general impression is that racing will continue at least until September 1.

MINORU'S DISMAL FAILURE AT EPSOM.

King Edward's Derby Winner Always a Beaten Horse in the City and Suburban Handicap.

London, Eng., April 23.—The City and Suburban Handicap of 1910 passed into turf history two days ago with its reputation of being fatal to favorites unbroken. The worst of it was that it was King Edward's Derby winner of last year that was the victin. From the beginning of ante-post betting down to the time of the race isself. More defeat of the control of the race is the control of the race is the control of the race is the control of the race where Minoru fattered his adherents. No horse could have appeared better or more perfectly trained than he did when inspected before the race, but he was outpaced and never near the front, his fine speed of last year at no time showing and the winner turning up in the 25 to 1 Irish colt. Bean Swift at Was a widely-felt hope that his majesty would win this popular race and the failure brought acute disappointment to thousands who were in nowlse interested except sentimentally.

Another feature of the City and Suburban was the success of Dean Swift, in running third, a place for which he had been heavily backed. His record in connection with this race is unrivaled. CLOUDLIGHT AGAIN IN FORM.

San Francisco, Cal., May 5.—Cloudlight proved an easy winner of the Belmont Handicap, the feature of the card at Oakland today. Fern L. ruled favorite for the race and got away in front, but Cloudlight eaught her quickly and drew away to win by over two lengths from the fast-closing Napa Nick, Fern L. finishing third.

The colors of Burns & Waterhouse were seen in front for the first 'time this season when Altarec won the maiden two-year-old race. The son of Altamax romped home, beating Dolly V. B., and Clara Hampton, the favorite. The heavily played Welakno won the second race easily. Ampedo, favorite for the third, made a poor showing, Salvage winning easily. Acquia broke poorly in the fifth, but failed to show her usual speed and Banonica won all the way.

Airs was bid up from $300 to $500 by J. Coburn, brother of jockey Coburn, but was retained.

Jockey Coburn was suspended for three days for misbehavior at the post in the first race.

Word has been received that O. A. Bianchi has secured second call on the services of jockey Archibald for the New York tracks. Originally Bianchi hoped to have first call, but James McManus was successful in closing a deal for his services. A valuable foal died at the Bianchi farm this week.

HILL TOP MEDIUM OF A KILLING.

New Yorkers Profit When Mare Wins Feature of Pimlico Card-Footprint Wins for A. Belmont.

Baltimore, Md., May 5.—The Brewers' Handicap, the feature race of the program at Pimlico this afternoon, was ruined by scratches, seven of the eleven carded being withdrawn by their owners. The race was made the medium of a small-sized killing by a New York delegation headed by R. Angarola, who backed Hdl Top from 4 to 1 to 9 to 5. Hill Top was riden by jockey McCahey and won with ease from Busy. Superstition, the favorite, finished third and beaten off.

With perfect weather and a fast track a large crowd turned out to witnes sthe sport. The Belmont stable gathered another purse when the Rock Sand colt, Footprint, galloped home an easy winner in the opening dash. Footprint was an odds-on favorite and was heavily backed by the public.

William Walker's Apologize, disqualified a few days ago, made amends by winning the second race in a driving finish with Everard. The latter closed a big gap and was gaining on the winner with every stride.

The conditions of the closing race called for three-year-olds bred in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, This race is practically a renewal of the Clabaugh Memorial, which was run on Saturday last. Dalhousle, the odds-on favorite, won easily after making all of his own pace.

Sparkling Wave, which was jumped on and cut down in his last race, was destroyed this morning. Asticot and Field Mouse, in the Belmont stable, are both lame. The former is reported to have split a foot, which means that he will be laid up for a long time.

H. Flippen has purchased of Mrs. A. H. Bradley the three-year-old. Coming Fast, by Aloha—Mrs. Stuart. Coming Fast stands only 14.2 and will be raced as a galloway.

T. W. Becker, of Virginia, has purchased the mare. Lois Cavanagh, of M. F. Sheedy.

Sir Chilton is reported as having bowed both tendons in his race of yesterday.

The stewards have taken jockey Harty's ride on Plantland in the second race under investigation.

WALDO WORKS DERBY ROUTE IN 2:10%.

Pulls Up with One Foot Bleeding Copiously, but No Serious Consequences Are Anticipated.

Louisville, Ky., May 5.—Over a good track, but not as fast as it will be tomorrow, when it will have been thoroughly rolled. Waldo, the Derby candidate, restored himself in public favor today by working the full route, a mile and a quarter, in 2:10½. He ran about five or ten lengths behind Berry Maid for the first three-quarters, and passed her as she pulled up at the end of a mile, so his trial was really accomplished without a pacemaker. He worked a few feet from the inside of the track, not getting as close to the rail as he did on Sunday last. He went the first eighth in 12, the quarter in 2½ three-eighths in 37½, half mile in 50½, five-eighths in 1:30½, mile in 1:42½ and the mile and an eighth in 1:30½, mile in 1:42½ and the mile and an eighth in 1:50½. His work was in marked contrast to the tired exhibition in which he figured last Sunday, as this morning he finished strong. As he left the track his left forefoot was bleeding profusely, as the leather pad inserted under his plate to relieve the soreness made by sand getting into the frog of his foot several days ago had worn into holes during his fast work and irritated the foot. A half hour later he cooled out and showed no signs of lameness in the injured foot, and borsemen do not regard the soreness as amounting to anything unless blood poisoning or similar complications might arrise.

Speedy work marked the performances of other than Derby candidates at the Downs today. Dorante, a Suburban Handicap candidate, went a mile in 1:44½ immediately after Waldo worked. Dorante went his first eighth in 13, quarter in 25½, three-eighths in 38½, the half in 51½, live-eighths in 1:04½, three-quarters in 1:18½ and seven-eighths in 1:04½, three-quarters in 1:

Tuesday next.

Fighting Bob is back in his old stall at the Downs, having arrived last night from Lexington. He seemed none the worse for his trip and was galloped slowly over the big track today.

Ninety-eight out of 100 nominees have qualified in the Derby for 1911, and seventy-four out of ninety-six in the Kentucky Oaks for the same year. Secretary Lyman H. Davis is gratified over the number of entries he is receiving for the Gentlemen's Cup race, to be run on Saturday, May 28.

As a consequence of Donau's recent good races at Lexington, 3 to 1 is now the best odds obtainable against his Kentucky Derby chances. A month ago there was plenty of 10 to 1.

CONSOLATION TO PREMIER

T. C. M'DOWELL'S COLT TAKES SECONDARY FEATURE OF BREEDERS' FUTURITY.

Claudia, Royal Report and John Furlong Figure in Sensationally Close Finish at Lexington-Distinguished Visitors at Kentucky Track.

Lexington, Ky., May 5.—The Breeders' Futurity Consolation Purse, carrying a net value of $465 to the winner, for two-year-olds, at half a mile, was the principal race of today's card and it was won in a common canter by T. U. McDowell's Premier, the swift son of Allan-a-Dale and Belle of Ashland, which scored brackets the first time out on Monday last. Premier was an odds-on favorite. Tahoe, responding gamely, got up in time to take second money from Bad News II., with Eleanor Stribling a tiring fourth. Tahoe is a sturdy little gelding, and when they get to going five-eighths of a mile and further, he probably will be a profitable proposition.

and when they get to some me a profitable proposition.

The most interesting race of the day and the one producing the closest finish of the meeting thus far, was the second, for three-year-olds at one mile and twenty yards, in which the favorite, S. K. Hughes' Claudia, was victorious by a nose and Royal Report second, a head in advance of John Furlong. Claudia was all out at the finish and in aonther stride Royal Report would have taken the purse. John Furlong, not raced as a two-year-old and held over by his owner, James C. Rogers, in anticipation of a possible victory in the Kentucky Derby this year, was making his debut and his running was satisfactory to his connections.

Irving H. Wheat-roft won his first race at the meeting when Alfred the Great romped home in the fifth. Zacatecas, the favorite, finished last, jockey Howard being caught napping when the barrier went up.

meeting when Alfred the Great romped home in the fifth. Zacatecas, the favorite, finished last, jockey Howard being caught napping when the barrier went up.

The weather was warm and clear and there was an improved attendance. Among the visitors were bon Alberto Terrazas, president of the Juarez Jockey Chub; James Buller, principal owner of the Empire City track; Price McKinney, the wealthy Cleveland sportsman, and Matt J. Winn, general manager of Churchill Downs, Juarez and Empire City tracks. Colonel Winn came over from Louisville. The other gentlemen came via Cincinnati in an automobile. Mr. Winn will go back to Louisville tomorrow to prepare for the opening of the Churchill Downs meeting next Tuesday, while the others will remain here until Monday. They will visit all of the important breeding farms. They are hopeful of the racing situation in New York. Mr. Winn says that with a good day and track, the attendance at Churchill Downs for the Derby this year will be the largest in the history of racing in Louisville. There will be a meeting of the State Racing Commission Saturday morning at eleven o'clock to act upon applications for licenses and other matters, including the case of John Marklein, whose entries were refused after the reversal of form shown by W. A. Leach Monday. The local judges have asked the racing commission to revoke Mr. Marklein's license.

Judge Charles F. Price came over from Louisville and was in the stand with Messrs. Clay, Falconer and Wilson for four races.

Merrick pulled up lame this morning and that caused his withdrawal this afternoon.

Chance Shot, a daughter of Medler and Spring Gun, died at the St. James Stud this morning while foaling a chestnut filly by Peep o'Day. The filly survives and was given to Priceless, which lost her foal, a colt by Cesarion, a day or two ago. Chance Shot was a half-sister to Royal Gun, the dam of Gunfire and Trigger.

T. Hattield shipped his horses to Louisville today. Hyperion II. will be turned out.

W. J. Young and Fred Luzader have patched up

SPLENDID PROGRAM FOR TORONTO.

Seven Races of Liberal Value Carded for All but Closing Day, When There Will Be Eight.

Toronto, Ont., May 5.—Seven races a day for the first six days of the meeting and eight on the seventh and closing day make up the imposing program for the meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club, May 21-28. On the last day there are two steeplechases and one every other day or eight in the seven days of racing. Entries for the King's Plate and the other stakes will be announced shortly.

The first day's program includes the King's Plate of an estimated value of $5,000 and the oldest fixture run continuously on this continent; the Scarboro Steeplechase Handicap of $800 added; the Minto Stakes of $1,000 added and four overnight races each of the value of $500 added.

For the second day there will be the Prince of Wales Handicap, $1,000 added; the Liverpool Cop, $1,000 added; the Coronation Stakes, $800 added; the Athol Steeplechase, $800 added, and three overnight purses of $500 added; the Woodbine Steeplechase, $1,000 added; the Helter Skelter Steeplechase, $800 added; the Helter Skelter Steeplechase, $800 added; the Leamington Handicap, $700 added, and four overnight purses of $500 each.

The King Edward Hotel Gold Cup; the Aintree Steeplechase (handicap), $800 added, and five overnight races of $500 each make up the fifth day's card.

The Maple Leaf Stakes of $1,000 added; the Tally-Noteeplechase, $800 added; the Woodbine Steeplechase, $800 added; the Woodbine Steeplechase (handicap), $800 added, and five overnight races of $500 each make up the fifth day's card.

Steeplechase (handicap), $800 added, and five overnight races of $500 each make up the fifth day's card.

The Maple Leaf Stakes of $1,000 added; the Tallyho Steeplechase, $800 added; the Waterloo Handicap, $700 added, and four $500 overnight races are programmed for the sixth day.

The closing day's card will be made up of the Toronto Cup, $5,000 added; the William Hendrie Memorial Handicap, $1,000 added; the Street Railway Steeplechase (handicap), $1,200 added; the Stanley Barracks Cup, a hunters' steeplechase handicap of $600 added, and four overnight purses of $500 each.

It will be seen that the entire program is constructed along lines that should assure a glorious term of racing. The monetary offerings are exceedingly liberal throughout and doubtless will attract some of the best horses in training in America.

J. E. Seagram's horses were shipped from Waterloo to Woodbine yesterday. Trainer Littlefield has twenty head in charge. The four-year-olds, Pearl Fisher and Tollendal will probably be the King's Plate reliances of the Waterloo stable. Tollendal was second to Shimonese in last year's race and Pearl Fisher is perhaps a little better than the Toddington colt. He is certainly a better work horse.

PLUNGERS OF IRON NERVE.

to on the turt "vivo" the few motion who goes away quicker than the chap who yells his head of when his horse wins.

It was a street to the control of the c and frequently scored when the owner and trainer of the horse did not think they had a chance. Sometimes he would meet the trainer and in an exchange of opinions would demonstrate clearly that the Horse under discussion should win that day, taking form shown on a previous occasion as a line by which to figure. Commencing life as a cutter of corks, and having practically no knowledge of horses, he developed into one of the best judges of condition to be found anywhere, and if a borse did not warm up to suit him or show the swear running clear and profuse in the paddock before the race he would have none of him, or if by chance his money was already down he hastened to hedge.

"Smith was clever enough to always have some good riders that were friendly to him, and one of them, Willie Shaw, who is now riding in Germany, was as close to the plunger as his brother Bill, who trained the horses running in the name of Pittsburg. Shaw was never much of a finisher, but he had that rare quality which made Isaac Murphy, Jimmy McLaughlin and Willie Martin great jockeys—he could tell you everything that happened in a race after it. Of course, yoù all know that the best horse does not always win. Half a dozen things can happen during the running of a race, and any one of them may be fatal to the chances of the best horse. Getting into a pocket is one of the ways a good horse can lose, and especially if there are jockeys—that is in the tight place. They won't pull out and let the unfortunate through, and in taking back and going around the field much precious time is lost. "Shaw could tell not only what had happened to his own mount but to every other horse in the race, and appen and the field much precious time is lost. "Shaw could tell not only what had happened to his own mount but to every other horse in the race, and perhaps you don't think that Sort of new was valuable to Smith! The horse that met with all the trouble would probably be at a much longer price the next time he faced the barrier, and plenty of folks couldn't which stuck to him through life by giving it up whenever he bought a pool, much the same as a broker in the street gives a name to the purchaser of stocks.

"Pittisburg always looked youthful, and when he first appeared at Monmouth he was not more than the day he burned the ring up on Eolian, and he was in such a hurry getting his money down that somebody else in the excitement of the speculation got one of his tickets calling for $2.000 against $500. while he in return found among his possession when $250. As he hadn't bet a less sum than $100 in any of the books, he knew right away that a mistake had been made. He rushed into the ring and up to the particular bookmaker with whom he had made his wager, and before they had begun to pay off protested against the psyment of the inreer ticket. The particular bookmaker with whom he had made his wager, and before they had begun to pay off protested against the psymen of the inreer ticket. The particular bookmaker with whom he had made his wager, and before they had begun to pay off protested against the psymen of the inreer ticket. The pay of the particular book and be divided of the $2.500 to $500 ticket, and he loudly called for his money when the question of his having got the wrong ticket was debated. It happened, fortunately for the youngster, that he had bet with one of the superset of the track.

"You remember the old gentleman. He was a man of few words. Pittsburg had a heap of whing the track and the pay of th of few words himself, he remarked in the vernacular:

"How much did you go for?"

"Only a hundred and five," was the reply.

"A prolouged whistle was the only comment of the senator's companion for a moment, and then, with a grin illuminating his ruddy face, he asked:

"How much have you got?"

"About sixty-five."

"And where are you going to get the balance?"
quizzed the inquisitor.

"From you," was the insant reply.

"The — you are," was the only comment from the rubicund one, who knew the senator spoke the truth.

"He paid up that $105.000 on Monday morning with as good grace as though he were doing those he had lost the money to a very great favor. It was the same year that Pat made his famous plunge on a filly named Ocean Tide, owned by himself.

"The occasion was the Great Filly Stakes at Sheepshead Bay, and the race was worth upward of $20,000. You would think that winning that would have satisfied most any ordinary man, but Pat was not ordinary in any respect, and he planned to make the winning of his life. The most dangerous opponent Ocean Tide had was the afterward famous filly Beldame, owned by August Belmont.

"This young mare, the apple of the eye of the chairman of the Jockey Club, was the favorite for the race, having shown some very good performances. Not much was known about Ocean Tide, but she had shown phenomenal speed in her training exercises, and Frank Brown, who trained her, told the senator that she was a phenomenon and that no man's two-year-old could beat her.

"Nobody can find out how much money McCarren bet on her that day. He sat in a box in the second gallery of the big stand at Sheepshead and watched the race without the quiver of an eyelash. His filly was on the inside next the rail and as the senator's box was below the finishing line the angle made it appear as though Ocean Tide had won from Beldame by a short head after a most furious struggle, the pair running like a team the last furlong or so.

"Mr. Belmont was seated on a box near by. He was among the first to congratulate the senator was anong the first to congratulate the senator from one of McCarren's companions:

"The senator smiled and, still holding Mr. Belmont's hand, remarked dryly:

"That's as true as the gospel of St. Paul that last remark of yours, young feller," said the veteran as he buttoned up his overcoat preparatory to swinging out into Broadway.—New York Sun.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Trance is again going soundly and is likely to start efore the Aqueduct meeting closes.

before the Aqueduct meeting closes.

By winning a race at Chester yesterday afternoon, Danny Maher, the American jockey, scored his thousandth success on the English turf.

R. J. Mackenzie and W. L. McCracken are among the nominators for the Ladles' Plate, which will be run in connection with the Winnipeg exhibition. Maskette is in much better condition this spring than she was a year ago, and she has shown more than any other Metropolitan eligible in the Keene establishment.

Algernon Daingerfield has been substituting as steward at Aqueduct for F. R. Hitchcock, who has been spending some time at Albany in connection with the pending racing legislation.

S. C. Hildreth has nominated King James and others of his horses for various stakes at Toronto. King James has been named for the Toronto Cup, which he won last year in gallant fashion.

"Skeets" Garner, elder horstor of Cup. Garner.

"Skeets" Garner, elder brother of Guy Garner, who is riding successfully this season for Earl Linnell and the Newcastle Stable, is galloping horses for Enoch Wishard, trainer for John A. Drake, at Sheepshead Bay.

Ballot, the Suburban winner of 1908, will probably be ready for his engagements at Sheepshead Bay. He is training soundly, and he will probably bear the Keene colors in another Suburban, perhaps against the doughty Fitz Herbert, winner of the Suburban of 1909.

A little while back fear was expressed in some quarters that King James, winner of the Metropolitan and Brooklyn handicaps last season, might not train this year. But today no horse at Sheepshead Bay is galloping more satisfactorily than the lopeared son of Plaudit and Unsightly.

ared son of Plaudit and Unsightly.

At the annual election of officers for the Sheepshead Bay Board of Trade, held this week, there was a unanimous sentiment for a continuation of the liberal policles that have been of such great value to the village in other years. All the newly-elected officials are friends of the turf and President Dougherry's opponent for head of the board, who was opposed to racing, was snowed under.

Jacob Pincus, the veteran horseman who saddled Iroquois for the late Pierre Lorillard in the English Derby of 1881, is doing some training for J. B. Haggin in the east. He saddled Telegram at Aqueduct Monday. Telegram is a brown colt by Star Ruby, out of Crisis, and is one of the yearlings Mr. Haggin sent to England last year. He was brought back with ten or eleven others because the English market was not profitable.
